The Home Furnishing Event of the Year

home institution. They know that they can depend upon our quality and style, and that we are not slow to right anything that may perchance go wrong.

With No Chance of Prices Going Down in the Near Future and Every Indication That They Will Go Higher Than They Are Now— This is the Moment to Buy Good Furniture

To prepare for this great event for our customers we began months ago taking advantage of the market before prices and transportation facilities made the accumulation of a satisfactory stock well nigh impossible. By carefully selecting from the best lines we have assembled a worthy stock and are able to offer the usual good values—in some instances even better values than ever. We can truthfully say that at this time we do not know when we will be able to get more stock shipped, and we advise you to buy now and take advantage of the low prices.

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Miller Weds.

The marriage of Miss Christine Miller, concert soloist of Pittsburgh, and well known in this city, and Daniel M. Clemson, president of the Carnegie Natural Gas company of Pittsburgh, was solemnized yesterday at the Congress hotel in Chicago, the ceremony being performed by Dr. Charles F. Wishart, former pastor of the Eighth United Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh. The marriage was witnessed by a few intimate friends. The marriage is said to be the culmination of a several years' courtship though rumors of the approaching nuptials were stoutly denied several times.

Miss Miller is well known in this city where she has appeared in concert on a number of occasions and during her visits here she has been entertained in the home of Mrs. D. P. Fitch. Her fame as a singer is spread throughout the United States and during the past few months she has been engaged in singing at the various army and navy cantonnements.

Besides possessing a remarkable contralto voice of unusual range and sweetness Miss Miller possesses a charm of face and manner probably not excelled by any American singer and this charm coupled with her beautiful voice has won for her many friends in this city who will learn with interest of her marriage. Mr. Clemson is one of Pittsburgh's substantial citizens.

The home to which Mr. Clemson will bring his bride is one of the famous residences of Pittsburgh. Built by Capt. J. J. Vandergrift, it passed to his death to Charles M. Schwab.

who paid $250,000 for the property, later spending $166,000 in building the conservatory, a stable, servants' quarters and other improvements. Mr. Clemson paid $300,000 for the property in 1907, since when it has greatly enhanced in value. It is located on Fifth avenue, adjoining the Howe estate. The house contains 20 rooms. Mr. Clemson, who is a widower, is one of the Carnegie Veterans and was a partner of the great steelmaster. His activities in business are varied and he has been very active for many years in church and philanthropic circles. He is wealthy, his fortune being reported to be several millions of dollars.

McDougal-Price.

The marriage of Ted G. McDougal, of the 150th Infantry, stationed at Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss., and Miss Cora Price, of Pine Grove, was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. J. E. Wells, pastor of the Diamond Street M. E. church. Mr. McDougal is a son of B. G. McDougal, of Pine Grove, and previous to enlisting in the government service was employed in the purchasing department of the Consolidation Coal company. Mr. McDougal was sent to Camp Lee and afterward was transferred to Hattiesburg. Mrs. McDougal, formerly Miss Price, is a daughter of the late Mrs. Mahala Gump whose death occurred a few weeks ago. Miss Price was formerly a supervisor of the Girls' Canning clubs of Marion county, and was an important factor in the organization of these clubs for effective work. She also taught school in the county for several years with success. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McDougal were entertained at the home of the bridegroom's brother, Guy McDougal, in this city. The groom expects to leave today for his post of duty at Camp Shelby.

Sanford-Brand.

The marriage of Raymond S. Sanford, operator of the Associated Press wire in The Times office, and Miss Elizabeth Katherine Brand, of Williamsport, Pa., will take place this evening at the Catholic rectory at Williamsport with Rev. Father Costello officiating. Mr. Sanford left last night for Williamsport and after a brief wedding journey will return here with his bride. Mr. Sanford's home is in Beacon, N. Y., and he has been located here for six months.

Entertained for Sons.

Honoring their two sons, Archie and Hugh Meredith who leave soon for Vancouver Barracks, Wash., where they will enter the United States service, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Meredith entertained a number of young friends informally at their home in Winfield district Saturday.

Aid Society to Meet.

Mrs. Lee Haas will entertain the Ladies' Aid society of the Lutheran church at her home on Thursday evening.

Returned Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kramer whose marriage was a recent event in Chicago, have returned here and taken up their residence in the Hayes apartments.

Entertained With Dance.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brill were host and hostess at a prettily appointed dance and bridge at their home at "Sleepy Hollow Farm" near Kingmont Saturday evening. A dainty lunch was served during the evening.

To Atlantic City.

Miss Melba Boyer, who has spent the past few weeks in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Monroe Boyer, leaves Saturday for Atlantic City, where she has accepted a position as millinery designer in an Atlantic City concern. Miss Boyer recently graduated from Drexel institute in Philadelphia.

Society to Meet.

The Standard Bearers society of the First M. E. church will meet with Miss Doris Hall on Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock at her home at 420 Walnut avenue. The members are requested to bring their sewing.
